

Yorkshire Gazette , April 1st, 1899.

York Symphony Orchestra

The above orchestra announce their first concert for Wednesday next, April 5th, commencing at eight o'clock. The orchestra consists of sixty performers, and it will be conducted by Mr T. Tertius Noble, the talented organist of York Cathedral. I hear that Mr Noble has got a very fine orchestra together. The principals will be Mrs Burrell, Mr W. H. Dawson, and Mr Jack Groves ('cello). The concert will be held in the Festival Concert Rooms.